ABOUT

KG Mampa is a Johannesburg based lawyer, broadcaster, writer, voice over artist and all-round entertainer and entrepreneur. Having had his first public speaking opportunity 24 years ago, at the tender age of 10, KG Mampa has gone on to grace many stages and mesmerize audiences across the globe. In 2010, he won the Best Delegate Award at the Cornell University Model United Nations debating competition in New York, obliterating competition from the US, UK, Canada, India and Kenya. He brings a unique combination of skills and expertise to the table. With a strong legal background, he has a keen analytical mind and exceptional communication skills. He has honed his ability to engage and inform audiences. His writing skills are equally impressive, with a talent for crafting compelling stories and articles.

KG Mampa started his overall broadcasting career in 2010 at Jacaranda FM, where he became a booked and busy voice over artist, particularly as the 2010 FIFA World Cup was in full swing on African soil. With a unique flair for current affairs, he evolved to serve as a newsreader at UJFM for some time.

In his capacity as a media and technology lawyer, KG Mampa has researched, written and advised on topics like the sustainability of public service media, the protection of personal information and artificial intelligence as a public good.
